

MERCWORKS

Once when I was a kid
I was getting a haircut

And the lady cut into my ear.

I don't know if it was shock or panic but I passed out.

I haven't gotten a single hair
out since that fateful day

I knew I may never be able to get a job

- or even
fall in love

But then and there I decided
this is how it
had to be.
